Perfect Medical Distributed Rapid Antigen Test Kits to Staff In the Fight Against Coronavirus

(9 March 2022, Hong Kong) Perfect Medical Health Management Limited ("Perfect Medical" or the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group"; Stock Code: 1830) said, the Company has been actively cooperating with local government to tighten preventive measures amid the fifth wave of coronavirus outbreak, in the hope that the pandemic could be under control soon. In order to protect the health of its staff and boost the confidence of its customers, Perfect Medical distributed Rapid Antigen Test (RAT) kits for staff today for self-tests in time to protect themselves, their families and the community to fight against the coronavirus.

Since the outbreak of coronavirus, the Company has been stepping up its internal cleaning and disinfection measures to create a safe working environment. These measures include enhancing daily cleaning work, regular disinfection, providing alcohol-based hand rub and sanitizing spray in the Company premises. To ensure the safety of its staff and customers, the Company has also installed body temperature checking systems, disinfectant carpets and air purifiers at all main entrances and exits.

The Group's management said, "The Group's business in Hong Kong has been affected inevitably by the tightening of social distancing measures by government since the beginning of 2022. The Group is continuously reviewing its development strategy, to focus on medical beauty and healthcare related professional services, and to offer a more diversified range of services in Hong Kong, Mainland China, Singapore and Australia. It is our common goal that Hong Kong could ride out the pandemic and the public could resume normal life as soon as possible."
